Riverside Bank, Poughkeepsie, Named a Top Performer

National 'Top 20' Ranking Credits the Bank's Efficiency

Washington, D.C. (June 2006)—Independent Banker, the national magazine of the Independent Community Bankers of America (ICBA) highlighted Riverside Bank as a “Top 20” industry earnings performer.

Riverside Bank was recognized for posting one of the top 20 best year-end earnings performances in 2005 for ICBA member banks with $100 million to $250 million in assets.

“Community banks are integral parts of the economic and civic fabric of thousands of towns and cities across America,” said ICBA Chairman Terry J. Jorde, president and CEO of CountryBank USA, Cando, N.D. “In addition to offering the quality financial products and services their customers need, community banks like Riverside Bank spend countless hours and resources helping their communities to thrive. ICBA congratulates Riverside Bank for serving its community so efficiently and effectively.”

Riverside Bank was identified in Independent Banker's annual year-end ranking of ICBA members based on the standard industry performance measures of return on average assets and return on average equity. The magazine compiles its annual member rankings in its June issue from year-end FDIC call report data

Separate performance rankings are listed for Subchapter S corporation community banks and Subchapter C corporation community banks among five asset categories. For details, visit the online news and media center at www.icba.org and click on Top 20 Best Performers.

Independent Banker is the flagship magazine published by ICBA. The monthly magazine is the only nationally distributed publication that exclusively covers the community bank marketplace.
